Warranty Certificate

Your new Necchi sewing machine is a product of fine engineering and has been produced at a factory with highest quality control and accordingly is guaranteed against any manufacturing defects in the following manner:

If your machine develops a fault caused by, in Necchi's sole judgment or that of its duly authorised agent, a defect in manufacturing/workmanship then the defect will be repaired or if Necchi's sole opinion it thinks it appropriate, the defective part will be replaced. Necchi's decision on whether to repair or replace a part is final. This warranty will run for 3 years from purchase for all mechanical parts but only 1 year from purchase for the motor, The foot controller and all other electrical components.

Any repairs within the first 12 months after purchase will be free of charge and carried out by Necchi's authorised agents or by Necchi for repairs after the first 12 months from purchase, you will be required to pay labour charges at the then current rates.

You must post/packing/delivery costs of the machine both to and from the repair agents. Necchi will not pay any call-out charge.

1. Damage/defects caused by fair wear and tear or by lack of reasonable care by not following the instructions contained in the instruction book.
2. General servicing and adjustments arising out of normal use
3. Routine replacement parts including (but not restricted to) drive belts, needles, bulbs, springs, bobbin cases, bobbins, overlocker loopers, needle plates and sewing feet.
4. Machines used wholly or partly in a trade business occupation or profession. Necchi shall decide whether a machine has been so used and its judgement will be final. It is the condition of this warranty that you have the machine regularly serviced in accordance with the manufacturers recommendations by an authorised Necchi dealer. This warranty will be cancelled if at anytime repairs or servicing is carried out by anyone other than an authorised Necchi dealer or if parts other than the genuine Necchi parts are fitted to your machine.

Please note:

1. Any other guarantee is not our responsibility
2. If the machine was brought from an authorised Necchi dealer then he alone, and not Necchi will be responsible to you under this guarantee.
3. The warranty is not transferrable.
4. This guarantee does not affect your statutory rights.
5. YOU MUST KEEP YOUR ORIGINAL RECEIPT OR OTHER PROOF OF PURCHASE, since no repairs/work will be carried out under warranty unless this is produced.
